RAISE SALVATION ARMY JOBLESS FUNDS. Grover A. Whalen (right), chairman of the Citizens' Committee of the Salvation Army, and Sayre M. Ramsdell of Philco, discuss ways and means of raising funds for the Salvation Army's campaign for the relief of the unemployed. In addition to sponsoring the broadcast of the Army-Navy charity football game on December 13 and donating the largest sum ever paid for a broadcast to the fund, Philco is aiding the cause by distributing thousands of "broadcast tickets", which will add thousands of dollars to the Salvation Army Radio Fund for the unemployed.
